

It Spurts

Noir Désir

Nobody i'll drag me into this stinking thoughts i know you you won't never carry it off even if you're kind with me

get out leave me alone
and have a nice day asshole

i know why you're a pretty cynic shit that i can't stand anymore so sorry about that i feel like you pick on me boy

listen and see
don't try it with me
i told you

well you been drinking a lot and your head's going round of course you think i'm a paranoic silly dirty wicked boy and you're a pain in my ahh so come on stop i fuck you shut up i'll kill you fuck off

you always drive me crazy get out and leave me alone

you don't even know anything true about my life

poison
explodes
and spruts out of our souls
