

Song for JLP

Noir Désir

What I feel
Tear is in my heart
You're looking in the eye of a devil's well

What I hear
Tear is in my mind
Looking in the eye of a devil's well

Where did he go, son of a been
Why follow on this like a river's stream
You're beating in the heat of the hell
What I feel
A tear is in my mind
Looking in the eye of a devil's well

What I hear
This tear is in my mind
Looking in the eye of a devil's well

Where did he go, son of a been
Why follow on this like a river's stream
You're beating in the heat of the hell

Why follow on this like a river's stream
You're beating in the heat of the hell
You're beating in the heat of the hell
You're beating in the heat of the hell
