Burn

Noisettes

So you're in a fix
Bones brittle as sticks
Who had your fire at?
Thus you've been bad

When you're in the mood, in the mood
You're about to bust your fuse
Who tore your wires out
Yes you've been burned, oh oh

The ordinary people are the most dangerous of them all Trying hard to be normal and you stand out most of all

Who tells you what to wear
And taught you how to care
I dare you to be yourself
And no one else

As thunder hides in you
It's time now to take control and rock n roll, roll

The ordinary people
they're the most dangerous of them all, of them all
Trying hard to be normal
then you stand out most of all Now, why don't you dance more or do your feet hurt
Don't get burned, cause you're born of fire
Hold it in too long you get burned

Don't get burned
Oh oh oh
You'll get burned
Come on girl
Don't get burned

You'll get burned!
Why haven't you learned!

Breathe the heat my dear
Thunder hides in you
I dare you to be yourself
Nobody else
