

That Girl

Noisettes

I don't wanna talk
Wanna hear about the things that she said
Running round in my head
And I don't wanna hear about her
Favourite magazines that she keeps
About her blogs and her tweets
I'll tell you something
It ain't no mystery how your new best friend looks
In your eyes

Cause
That girl's in love with you
That girl's in love with you
I know that you're too blind to see
I know that it's so plain to see
That girl's in love with you
So madly

I don't want to speak if you're not coming home
I'll be down the street, I'd rather dance to the beat
And I don't want to cure your hangover
'Cause we never did shots
You were with her until 4
I don't mind company
Well not officially
But when she sits next to you
You don't realise woo-oo-oo-oo

That girl's in love with you
That girl's in love with you
I know that you're too blind to see
I know that it's so plain to see
That girl's in love with you
So madly

That girl's in love with you
(That girl's in love with you)
That girl's in love with you
That girl

I know that you're too blind to see
I know that it's so plain to see

That girl's in love with you

I'm just a so-and-so
A lucky so-and-so
I do what I do 'cause I'm mad for you
But just a peek at you
And I can see that you're delirious, so seriously

Honestly

If I was playing, baby, you'd be sorry

Baby end of story
That girl's in love with you

That girl's in love with you
I know that you're too blind to see
I know that it's so plain to me
That girl's in love with you
(That girl's in love with you)
That girl's in love with you
(That girl's in love with you)
I know that you're too blind to see
I know that it's too plain to see
That girl's in love with you
That girl's in love
That girl's in love
That girl's in love with you
So bad
