That Girl

I don't wanna talk Wanna hear about the things that she said Running round in my head And I don't wanna hear about her Favourite magazines that she keeps About her blogs and her tweets I'll tell you something It ain't no mystery how your new best friend looks In your eyes Cause That girl's in love with you That girl's in love with you I know that you're too blind to see I know that it's so plain to see That girl's in love with you So madly I don't want to speak if you're not coming home I'll be down the street, I'd rather dance to the beat And I don't want to cure your hangover 'Cause we never did shots You were with her until 4 I don't mind company Well not officially But when she sits next to you You don't realise woo-oo-ooh That girl's in love with you That girl's in love with you I know that you're too blind to see I know that it's so plain to see That girl's in love with you So madly That girl's in love with you (That girl's in love with you) That girl's in love with you That girl I know that you're too blind to see I know that it's so plain to see That girl's in love with you I'm just a so-and-so A lucky so-and-so I do what I do 'cause I'm mad for you But just a peek at you And I can see that you're delirious, so seriously Honestly If I was playing, baby, you'd be sorry Baby end of story That girl's in love with you

Noisettes

That girl's in love with you I know that you're too blind to see I know that it's so plain to me That girl's in love with you (That girl's in love with you) That girl's in love with you) I know that you're too blind to see I know that you're too blind to see That girl's in love with you That girl's in love with you That girl's in love That girl's in love That girl's in love So bad