

So Low

NoMeansNo

I'm flipping in the wind like a flag on a pole
And it's blowing me away
I've got to go because i feel so low

I'm alone!

So low

I threw away the picture of my happy home
And hung a bone yard in it's place
I've got to go because i fell so low

I'm alone!

So low

My baby took the lexus and left a mule to ride
I never felt so naked now there's nothing left to hide
She said there is nothing left between s
That's why I love you so
What see means i'll never know, I'll never know
I gotta go, go, go

So low

I've got to go because i feel so low

I'm alone!

So low
