

Stocktaking

NoMeansNo

Are you getting whta you want?
And are you geting what you need?
I've heard it said that love is truely sacred
But nowhere is written that's guarenteed

Who decides what will happen?
And who decides what for?
Is it just a crazy little game?
Or is ist just an ugly little war?

Are you sick an tired of the same old thing?
Or are you happy enough?
When does so much become so little?
When does so little become so much?
