

Burn the pictures

Nomy

Hey you believe it or not
But I find you pretty attractive heeey
I guess you dont know how I am
And thats ok cause I dont give a damn thats right

So whats your name
Am I insane
If I call you baby
Right now for the first time
I wanna wake up with you every fucking day

Burn the pictures from yesterday
I thought I loved you but my hate is in the way
This is the hour when I regret
Everything I promised you is not what you will get

You're lying next beside me
Breathing silently
My conscience catches up like always killing me

How about people Leaving me alone

Cause every god damn day I try to love them but I feel Im doing wrong

How should I live
This life
Now when I know
that I am lost inside of me

How should I live
My life
Now when I know
That I am dead inside

Burn the pictures from yesterday
I thought I loved you but my hate is in the way
This is the hour when I regret
Everything I promised you is not what you will get
