

By The Edge Of God

Nomy

You really tried it now*
To stand this life
But now you don't need to

It's really hurting me
When I think of you
I'm waiting for answers

So I ask you
My savior
What do you want from me now

Because I gave all
To keep her
You put me here just to fall
And now you are making it hard

But I said No My god
I'm trying to live for you

You're making it hard To give
What do you want from me

If only I could knew
What you held inside
If I could be there with you

If only I could see
What you once saw
All that would kill me

So I ask you
My savior
What do you want from me now

I gave you all
Heavenly father
What can you take from me know
You are making it hard

I'm standing by the edge of God
I want my redemption

I'm trying to be close to you
Beyond resurrection

I'm standing by the edge of god
I'm standing by the end of my time
Save me from what I've become
Save me from what I have just done
