

Crucified By Love 2006

Nomy

Erase my name from the sand this is a song about my fate I'm not welcome into to your land or anywhere else in this world full of hate

I'm not talking about a simple crush without a whisper, and without a sign I talk about the thing above she was no longer to be mine now I know the hero have to cry sometime now and then he also feel the pain Did I ever tell you lies or cross the line

But I was forced to choose another lane

I believe there's no one of your kind that I can find you and me were the light But I'm in the dark cause you threw me out

Someone sang that Im going home I shouldnt be the lonely one someone sang that you should fade away the song is written as my pray

Later on when I sing this song
I feel you have done nothing wrong I think it was wisely made now all my feelings have fade away my tears bursts in fire for you I was crying blood and death it self it knew That i do anything yeag baby my dove Im cruised by love I've never felt a tear for you I was crying blood you knew that I do anything my dove I'm crusified by love (I did everything my dove now I'm cruised... I' m crusified d by love
