

I died by you

Nomy

I gave myself some time today
Sat down and criticized my way
The dark was born when i could see
That love is not inside of me
Dont tell me I'm the only one
I'm dead of what this life have done

Can't handle the pain
This life is so hollow
And I can't make the rain
To drown my own sorrow

And I can't stand this life
When you are my poison
I'm cut by a knife
Of your devotion, of your devotion

I sat and thought of you today
Tried to put us in the same old lane
I died in my dreams of lies this night
I don't wanna open my eyes in light

Can't handle the pain
This life is so hollow
And I can't make the rain
To drown my own sorrow

And I can't stand this life
When you are my poison
I'm cut by a knife
Of your devotion, of your devotion

Can't handle the pain
Of your devotion of your devotion
I'm dead inside

Can't handle the pain
Of your devotion of your devotion
I'm dead by you
I died by you

Can't handle the pain
This life is so hollow
And I can't make the rain
To drown my own sorrow

And I can't stand this life
When you are my poison
I'm cut by a knife
Of your devotion, of your devotion

I'm dead by you
I died by you
