

She reminds me of you

Nomy

I've been bleeding for years and I'm dry
I cannot change anything, god I tried
The picture I had of us two
I gave it to her 'cus she reminds me of you

And she's asking me things all the time
Why you're not around and if you're doing fine
She has my picture of you
When I'm in the dark - then I know you there too

She's been crying at night
God, don't know what to do
She's been screaming your name
She's been bleeding for you

I'm standing all alone
I've got nothing to live for
She reminds me of you
And she reminds me of you
And it breakes my heart in two

Once Julie gave me a song
It was about you but now it's been gone
Once Julie gave me a smile
Like yours, but it's been a while

She reminds me of you
And it breakes me in two
Oh, I'm standing all alone
I've got nothing to live for
Now that Julie's gone
I've got nothing to live for
She reminds me of you

I thought I was alone
But she is to live for
I know that you are gone
But I cannot cry no more
