

Unchain Me

Nomy

Some path are choosen...
Some are not
I sat down with the devil
And negotiated about my faith

Someone came into my head
Crowned me with disease
By her lies I was fed
All she did was to teas

Everything I had to swallow
All my love and all the pain
It turned out she was so hollow
And it made me insane

Kill me if I misunderstood you
And the dark will maybe tell me the truth
Kill me if you want to unchain me
Kill me if you want me to see

Oh dear lord
I lick my knife
Bring your sword, and take my life
So dear lord
I lick my knife
Bring your lord, and take my life

In this cruel and ruthless mascerade
The devil stands aside
He is whatching how I fade
While you take me for a ride

To your love I lay my plead
Leave me alone and let me bleed

Oh dear lord
I lick my knife
Bring your sword, and take my life
So dear lord
I lick my knife
Bring your lord, and take my life
