

Wait One Day

Nomy

Your eyes can not smile awake just for a while

You're someone else

Those eyes you once had they are fading away
to some where else

And now when we are all alone Its hard to speak
you wont follow me home this time

Stay on this side
can you hear me Dont fall away
Can you wait just for a day

When night finally comes we're still laying here like shadows now

This way it all ends Im trying to move away from here

And now when I am all alone
And you're not here
You wont follow me home this time
