

Bombs away!
The plan is all in attack.
Fuck the history books, they're harder to read than the facts.
There's nothing that we can do cause they're shoveling us shit colored red, white, and blue.
Bombs away!
For a more american you.
That's the way the cookie crumbles.

The tooth for tooth makes it hard to chew.
Media. Media show us the enemy.
From the washington press release to our home color TVs.
There's nothing that we can say.
Thank you for the fear manifested into hate.
Bombs away!
For a more american fate.
