And make this worth our fight?

Making choices and hoping that they're all right.
Hating waiting for something to make this worth the waiting...
and what are you waiting for?
Any advice?

And I'm not even looking this time.

Making choices and hoping that they're all right.
Hating waiting for something to make this worth the waiting...
and what are you waiting for?
Any advice?

There's a crack in the ice.

Making choices and hoping that they're all right.
Hating waiting for something to make this worth the waiting...
