

Crazy

Nonpoint

Life, you train it.
Trust, you break it.
Key, you break it all,
So where does that leave me?
Hope, I miss it.
This, what is it?
Will, I lost it all
So where does that leave me?

Everything I lost,
Every choice I make,
A hundred times I've told you
A million miles away.
Struggle in the hole,
You took it all away,
Beg me for the forgiveness,
Or give it all away.

I'm going crazy,
Because you made me.
I'm going crazy,
Why won't you save me?

Cared, for nothing.
Tried, to hurt me.
Did your worst to me
And yet it's left me strong.
Gave, attention.
Learned the lessons
Respect, I walk the line.
So where did I go wrong?
Penney for your thoughts.
A pound of flesh I gave.
One more bad decision.
One less war to wage.
Strangling the hope.
You took it all away.
You begged me for forgiveness.
I'll give it all away.

I'm going crazy,
Because you made me.
I'm going crazy,
Why won't you save me?

I can see
The future in this.
It leaves me
Dead and homeless.

Do release
My worst desires.
Storm the beach,
The rage, the fire.

I'm going crazy,
Because you made me.

I'm going crazy,
Why won't you save me?

Because you made me,
I'm going crazy.
My soul, my sorrow
Paved the way
To leave us hollow.
