Even with a diagram of

My DNA I leave scientists baffled 'till the end of the day they try to pick apart

My life-style and how I survive making money for the boss while I make nickel and dime, and being on time takin' a punch and doin'

My best, not ever hearing good job and staying upset it doesn't take to much to find the sediments they left behind.

Put down the book put up the walls I'm never givin' up at all what's yours is yours, what's

Mine is yours and I'll mature.

Endure.

Not even with ten men holding

Me back not even with a devious planned attack contemplating every move that I play willing the bad things all away keeping the worry-free happiness philosophy that's what I let them see when they try to look at Me.

Don't want out.

These issues arise everyday,

though you try to turn your head and walk away,

though it leaves you feeling insecure you're gonna feel your li fe mature.

Endure
