

Misery

Nonpoint

You made an addict out of me without even knowing I was a sucker for another dose of your..

I see you're feeling rejected need a catacomb spot to rot they'll be expecting you
You see misery loves company kept, it's better when there's a crowd to bitch about it I'm reeling and reacting to the lack of smack your parents failed to give to you
I'm peeling your surface back to expose your lack of poise and tact yeah
It's gonna alter my direction
It's something that you seem to have forgotten to mention.. to mention

misery and your company yeah
You made an addict out of me without even knowing I was a sucker for another dose of your..
misery and your company yeah

The only way that I can describe this life is I'm a train wreck survivor buried alive
No sign of life for days but it's quiet here so I'm going to sleep for a while

Do you really need a reason?
Right moment, right time, right season Let's not pretend who we're pleasing here because I don't need a better reason
It's gonna alter my direction
It's something that you seem to have forgotten to mention.. to mention

misery and your company yeah
You made an addict out of me without even knowing I was a sucker for another dose of your..
misery and your company yeah

So how can I look away?
When our hearts seem to be breaking down
You made an addict out of me without even knowing
You made an addict out of me without even knowing
You made an addict out of me without even knowing I was a sucker for another dose of you

You made an addict out of me without even knowing I was a sucker for another dose of your..
misery and your company yeah
You made an addict out of me without even knowing I was a sucker
for another dose of your..
misery and your company yeah
You made an addict out of me without even knowing I was a sucker
for another dose of your..
misery and your company company
company
company yeah
