When It's Over

Nonpoint

I gotta go before i lose my mind
I cant explain it or name it this time
You bring the lightning and the thunder that I drop
And keep complaining that the rain won't stop

I dont wanna waste the life you got Fixing all the that just dont work
Working for the thing that I dont want
Chasing all the things that i dont want

Feels like i don't belong
Like someone's singing the wrong song
Who says when it's over (it's over, it's over)

Who is the one in control am i the one in control?
Who says when it's over (it's over, it's over)

You could see that i was losing touch
I couldnt say it but you were too much
You needed something that i never really had and keep complaini ng that i always get mad

I dont wanna be the one you want
Doing all the things that piss you off
Fighting for life that i dont want
Chasing what I know i just dont want

Feels like i don't belong
Like someone's singing the wrong song
Who says when it's over (it's over, it's over)
Who is the one in control am i the one in control?

Who says when it's over (it's over, it's over)
Whos the one in control
Am i the one in control of it all
Whos the one in control
Am i the one in control of it all
Am i the one in control of it all

Feels like i don't belong
Like someone's singing the wrong song
Who says when it's over (it's over, it's over)
Who is the one in control am i the one in control?
Who says when it's over (it's over, it's over)
