Widowmaker

Nonpoint

Think this is easy for me? But I chose this life I chose it like I choose to breathe But I want this life for you and me So I'm risking everything that I believe And hope that it might Change things. Explain things

I gotta get this pain to leave me now It will get better somehow

Don't invest your heart too much Cus one day I'm going to break it See I have plans to die young I'm the widowmaker

So don't invest your heart too much Cus one day I'm going to take it And bring it to the only place that you can't go yeah I'm the widowmaker

See it's hard for me to explain The game and the rules have changed And I don't think you wanna play this game anymore The future for a person like me is always the same The rules haven't changed for me It's a game you can't win you sure you wanna play?

Only thing I know is you can't win So why even begin?

Don't invest your heart too much Cus one day I'm going to break it See I have plans to die young I'm the widowmaker

So don't invest your heart too much Cus one day I'm going to take it And bring it to the only place that you can't go yeah I'm the widowmaker

Fall I might not be there for you Yeah if you fall I might not be there for you

Don't invest your heart too much Cus one day I'm going to break it See I have plans to die young I'm the widowmaker

So don't invest your heart too much Cus one day I'm going to take it And bring it to the only place that you can't go yeah I'm the widowmaker
