

An Ocean Of War

Norma Jean

This is a break up scene.
You're livin' like a cinematic dream.
This is a break up scene.
You're livin' like a cinematic.
This is a break up scene.
You're livin' like a cinematic dream.
This is a break up scene.
You're livin' like a cinematic.

Just give me a chance to say everything.
You're not thinking it through at all.
Like you never saw it coming.
This is not an opening.
Well just give me a chance to say,
We never saw us coming.

If you wanted to leave me,
All you had to do was ask.
If I want to be the guesser of you.
And if you say you're my darling
I'm gonna throw up and die,
If I want to be the guesser of me.

Everything is under control.

This is a break up scene.
You're livin' like a cinematic dream.
This is a break up scene.
You're livin' like a cinematic.

Everything is under control.

So just give me a chance to say everything.
You're not thinking it through at all.
Like you never saw it coming.
This is not an opening.
Well just give me a chance to say,
We never saw us coming.

But if you wanted to leave me,
All you had to do was ask.
If I want to be the guesser of you.
And if you say you're my darling
I'm gonna throw up and die,
If I want to be the guesser of me.

Yeah, this is a break up scene.
You're livin' like a cinematic dream.
This is a break up scene.
You're livin' like a cinematic dream.

Does it hurt you to know that it
Does not hurt me at all, at all?
