

Betrayed

Norther

One morning I woke up, realised I've been betrayed shadows of yesterday fill my mind as I drift away no matter what's ahead.
I'll face the death I'll find my hate this twisted fate I have shall lead the way and make you brake

One night I went to die, deceived again,
I was ready to fly thousand blades waiting for me, so fuck you all,
I was meant to be free
my hate was cheating me, is this the path,
I cannot see too many bridges burned, can't you see I am the traitor would you die for my hate now burning in my eyes,

burning me inside.
I guess I now have to cut you
while lying by your side, I'm out of my mind

this time the conspiracy, in your mind went out of line no more forgiving, close your eyes
I'll help you to die in the night I am beside you, weird voices in my mind you're asleep and I love you, but more than thousand times I cut you

burning in my eyes,
I'm out of my mind!

that night I took your life and now this traitor dies and so he died...
