Close Your Eyes

Open your eyes admit it all

Your guilt bleeds through Your eyes it's true There's no way out Your mouth is full Of your lies in disguise You walk away you turn away You run away you fade away Wash your sins away, scratch your skin away, bleed your soul aw ay But you won't escape, cry your pain away, clean your stains awa У Close your eyes today, but you won't escape, there's no hope to day Feeling has gone away, darkness is here to stay, and you can't escape There's no me today, myself has gone away, darkness in me to st ay And I can't escape No way out Close your eyes deny it all Close your eyes and you will fall One way out Open your eyes see it all
