

No Way Back

Norther

I no longer feel
Where do my heart belong
This shivering wind
Lies frozen into the core
But the rain that whips my face
Covers my tears
This dark shades of night
Hides my fears

There's no way
No way back
Wherever I am walking

I hide behind my smile
And it hurts me inside
I cry without shedding a tear
Once away they're sincere

Still the wind blows
And the rain falls on me
And I know

There's no way
No way back
Forever I am walking

I hide behind my smile
And it hurts me inside
I cry without shedding a tear
Once away they're sincere
