

Of Darkness and Light

Norther

Gather 'round in the main square come tonight my child
see the end of a sinful life
the end of mischievous lies

So I went among the crowd
the whispers cursed her name Then through the people's frantic shout she was brought to be tested by the flame

And I saw her smile
as the flames rose
She looked up to the sky
and the air froze
Something in her eyes

Too much for the narrow minds condemned as an evil whore She didn't mind, 'cause deep inside she had reached something more

And I saw her smile
as the flames rose
and the air froze
Something in her eyes

as the flames rose
I looked into her eyes
I saw that she knows things beyond this life
Of Darkness and Light
