

Can't control me with your winks
Now that I can see the links
Take off this "I love you" cape
There're doubts inside the mirrorshape

Since you started to pretend
Love wears it's bitter cent
There's one thing you'll never tape
Doubts inside the mirrorshape

Can't control me with your winks
Now that i can see the links
Take off this "I love you" cape
There're doubts inside the mirrorshape

Sorrys that I never bought
Tied my mind to this one thought
Knowing that I can't escape
Those doubts inside the mirrorshape
