

Something

Northern Lite

Searching for the missing something
Thats what my life is like
Learn to wait for the nevercoming
Until you take the final strike

Searching for the missing something
Tried to find it in her eyes
Cannot tell- is it my something
Or just a pack of lies?

Sometimes I get a little 'something'
Out of my radio
And when I try to hold it tight
I start to let it go
