

The Awakening

Northland

I was forgotten long time ago
cursed by the human race
From the shadows I will arise
It's time for my revenge
(My revenge...)

The prophecy just has begun!

Again the blood runs through my veins again my heart beats My anger grows as seconds pass by for all the winters that I left behind (Left behind...)

The final judgement comes!

Tonight I will arise again
from the dark
The eagles will cry
On my awakening!

LET'S GO!

Beautiful sky of winter nights
I couldn't see your shining stars
Frozen breeze of winter time
I couldn't feel your eternal ice

Tonight I will arise again
from the dark
The eagles will cry
On my awakening!

Finally I opened my eyes while a eagle was crying and all my forces light my soul again.
Now it's time to find my revenge.

Ride for revenge, the cursed one!
Ride full of rage, the cursed one!

I was forgotten long time ago
cursed by the human race
But now I'm awake and you will die
I will send you straight to hell (Straight to hell...)

Your last winter has just begun!

Tonight I will arise again
from the dark
The eagles will cry
On my awakening!

Tonight I will arise again
from the dark
The eagles will cry
On my awakening!
