

Rot

Northlane

So cold my soul's numb
Like an icy breeze on solstice morning
The worst enemy's one that's homegrown
This is more than just a faceless warning.

DON'T LET THE WORLD ROT
DON'T LET THE WORLD ROT
Hanging by a thread they just putrefy
Our blood, our birth, our sky and we will not stand by
DON'T LET THE WORLD ROT
(ROT ROT ROT ROT)

So warm the sun burns my soul
Like the fossils in the earth they take my breath
Oh ooh ooh
Black blood bleeding heart filled stone
Take the power away from the hands of death

Take purpose,
Take action
Cause a reaction
Entangle the spiders
Make sense of this mess,
A mind at large
Is a power they can't repress!

We are all connected
We are one you and I
We will not stand by
DON'T LET THE WORLD ROT

Omnipotent mind at large
Sick of living underhanded
This is OUR LIFE, we command it
Go! We can't all hide in fear
A time of reckoning is near
We are all connected
DON'T LET THE WORLD ROT!

We can't all hide in fear
Its' time of reckoning is near
We are all connected
A web of minds connected

Take purpose,
Take action,
Cause a reaction
Entangle the spiders
Make sense of this mess
A mind at large
Is a power they can't repress!

Sick of living underhanded,
This is OUR LIFE, we command it!
