Northlane

Rot

So cold my soul's numb Like an icy breeze on solstice morning The worst enemy's one that's homegrown This is more than just a faceless warning.

DON'T LET THE WORLD ROT DON'T LET THE WORLD ROT Hanging by a thread they just putrefy Our blood, our birth, our sky and we will not stand by DON'T LET THE WORLD ROT (ROT ROT ROT ROT)

So warm the sun burns my soul Like the fossils in the earth they take my breath Oh ooh ooh Black blood bleeding heart filled stone Take the power away from the hands of death

Take purpose, Take action Cause a reaction Entangle the spiders Make sense of this mess, A mind at large Is a power they can't repress!

We are all connected We are one you and I We will not stand by DON'T LET THE WORLD ROT

Omnipotent mind at large Sick of living underhanded This is OUR LIFE, we command it Go! We can't all hide in fear A time of reckoning is near We are all connected DON'T LET THE WORLD ROT!

We can't all hide in fear Its' time of reckoning is near We are all connected A web of minds connected

Take purpose, Take action, Cause a reaction Entangle the spiders Make sense of this mess A mind at large Is a power they can't repress!

Sick of living underhanded, This is OUR LIFE, we command it!
