

World eater

Northlane

You think you see the world
I'll tell you nothing's how it seems
You think you see the world
I'll tell you nothing's how it seems

Organ of intuition, suppressed and maimed
Believed to be "Nothing but a Dream"
Dimethylated spirits on fire in me
Burning from the inside
Divorce from nature
Exile from Eden, confounding of tongues in a world full of lies
Why can't we open our eyes?

You think you see the world
I'll tell you nothing's how it seems

I've seen the world with the clearest of eyes
A world of fear, it's loud and clear and no surprise

They watch us from above
Can you feel the chaos overtaking us like a never ending plague
They watch us from above crying tears of blood
Crying tears of blood for the souls of the world (souls of the world)
They watch us from above
Now I hear the voices of an ancient race
Peering through the veil of time and space
Emerging from the void I am reborn
I see the world for what it really is Distorted visions of heaven
I have discovered there's hope in my heart

For I am One
I am One
I am Love
I am Bliss, I am Everything
I am Everything you fear
Everything you've ever known
But don't be scared (but don't be scared), for I am here

You think you see the world
I'll tell you nothing's how it seems
All your dreams
Nothing's how, how it seems
All your dreams, all your dreams
