

Hailstones and lead
Is what my voodoo doll embeds
But I got this toy, so much bigger than this,
And when you wish on it you get your three clicks
Hey pretty air
Take me somewhere

Someone just paint it red
My blinking neon chest
Catch a curse or two so I can
Hear a whisper in my bed

Don't you like the peace?
That fights you when you're on your knees
I'm just an island that floats around on stares
A digital widow
An abandoned fare
Hey pretty air
Tie my feet where
They become a pair

Someone just paint it red
My blinking neon chest
Catch a curse or two so I
Can hear a whisper in my bed
Let down your hair and
Swing with me instead
Up the stairs to the party of the dead

We'll party like we're dead

Someone just paint it red
My blinking neon chest
Catch a curse or two so I
Can hear a whisper in my bed

We can watch them dance all on my hands
Someone just drink with me instead
