

Uninvited Guest

Nosferatu

I walk with the Devil hand in hand through the dark clouds of sorrow,
Run with the dogs of my design.
Purgatory. Alone.
Descend into despair, infesting my soul,
He climbs inside this host, Into the darkest depths I go.
Pulls me down.

He'll come inside my heart tonight,
Come inside and drain my life,
My need to remain is fading fast.
He'll come inside my heart tonight,
Come inside and drain my life,
In Hell, in this Hell with you.

When I close my eyes he stares cold back at me,
Drags me down, rapes and enters me,
An ocean of blood, a sea of regret,
The grieving knife cuts through me, It's the sole release I get
Possessing me.
Chorus. .First verse. Chorus.
