

My Apology

Nosound

depending on what I should feel on the way on the day I decided to leave remembering places
where we walked
before

remembering time
when we were in love
draining moods every day waiting for my drug..

did you ever feel the same?
did I say goodbye?

the wonder flowing slow
the bridges falling down the empty spaces
of your hate

surrounding walls
you create
do you see me?
please, this is my apology..

it's the way we are now
our winter will come
do you feel the same now?
did I say goodbye?

it's the way we are now
our winter will come
did you ever feel the same?
did I say goodbye?
