

Obey The King

Nothgard

Ash and grime will hide all light
Bright red dawns replaced by night
Ice and snow so black not white
Storm and wind will rush all sites

Rise global strike
A new age of ice and snow
Black forces over earth
Devouring darkness forever glares

Feel my power see my Pride
I'm the fortune's master, I rule the light
Obey my mania, I am insane
I'm the only magistrate, my will takes place

The era of doom now begins to broach
Signs of downfall appear caused by the human scourge
Power, force and sole reign my childhood dreams
Money, might and terror my inner believe

Black clouds will cover the all-judging supernova
My dark realm begins to rise
Extinction of all life - what a nice mind
A new balance on earth I will provide

Rise global strike
A new age of ice and snow
A never-ending inferno

Chorus:
I can push the trigger
