There's a rumbling in my head
It's getting louder and louder
There's a shaking in my bones
It's getting stronger and stronger
There's a hunger in my heart
It's full of promise, promise
There's an itch under my skin
It's under my skin, under my skin

Cos I just wanna feel something real Cos I just wanna feel something

On the pavement
I was looking for a lover, a lover
And eyes are rolling
She noticed, noticed
There's blood red on my shirt
And it's shining, shining
There's a sharp pain from my face
I kinda like it, I like it

Cos I just wanna feel something real
Cos I just wanna feel something real wanna feel something something
something something
something

I just wanna love
I just wanna touch
I just wanna see
something
I just wanna love
I just wanna touch
I just wanna see

Cos I just wanna feel something real Cos I just wanna feel something real wanna feel something
