

One time through the door, and on the floor, all I
Want to be is just a little whore, all I want to do what I
Want to do to myself, I cut my ity bity self, I can't Think about you and what you want to do, I should I
Better stop myself cause you could be like you be like
That you could be like this old man that said, and
This is what he said to me

I don't want to feel this way anymore, cause I cannot Take all this won't you save me

I don't need this shit to end this endless story, take
My savior take my pacifier

Believe more in a core I've stored everything you
Said, put my hell to bed now again, I am dreams bad
Ones as it seems is why I cannot redeem, can't what I Do everything I do is just for blame sake, anyways and
This is what he said to me and anyway, and this is What he said to me what he said to me
