

When the reeky dreams break
And lead to final condemnation When the time left behind quickens this wicked moment

You lay as weak as a feather under the heel of the time Beyond the grasp of a mortal man Furthest disorder of mind

A lie, delight
In your heart fire is burning bright, alight
In the bosom of the earth an innocent bride

When the dim light shines illuminates everything but your eyes
When the entities fail
And delusions begin to reek

a dream to tear apart a mind
A moment delays to eternity
The painful duplication of time
