

Time after Time

Novaspace

Lying in my bed
I hear the clock ticking and think of you
Caught up in circles
Confusion is nothing new
Flash back, warm nights
Almost left behind
Suitcase of memories
Time after some times you pictured me
I'm walking too far ahead, you're calling to me
I can't hear what you've said
Then you said, go slow, I fall behind
The second hand unwinds
If you're lost you can look
And you will find me, time after time
If you fall I will catch you
I'll be waiting, time after time
If you're lost you can look
And you will find me, time after time
If you fall I will catch you
I'll be waiting, time after time
If you're lost you can look
And you will find me, time after time
If you fall I will catch you
I'll be waiting, time after time
Secrets stolen from deep inside
The drum beats out of time
If you're lost you can look
And you will find me, time after time
If you fall I will catch you
I'll be waiting, time after time
If you're lost you can look
And you will find me, time after time
If you fall I will catch you
I'll be waiting, time after time
Time after time
