

Making Waves

Novastar

Even though I've been thinking of it I've got alot, got alot to say Don't know why you've been thinking of it Someone else got you in his sway And you say it means nothing to you it's coming out in words like these

you can't make waves
all alone in your brain no, you can't seem to find peace of mind you arrive in the silence of it as candid as the word would be you say that it's nothing to you but it's coming out in words like free

you can't make waves
all the love in your brain no, I can't seem to find peace of mind and there's not much here the full can years
