Silent Tomorrow (Dark Edit)

Novembers Doom

Eternity - A gift I no longer want. Forever - I can't go on with these endless nights. My sanity has been stripped away. Everything is beauty, and I have no love to share. Silent tomorrow, I want to live my life once more. Visions of grandeur, I want to taste the void extreme. Each time I close my eyes, I only wish for my end to come. No angels sing for me, and the light of my life dims away. Silent tomorrow, I want to live my life once more. Visions of grandeur, I want to taste the void extreme. Destiny awaits me, I cannot carry on this way. Coward of the dream, In silence I will rest my eyes. Crippled by fear, the sights I see. No means to this end. This is my only way. Silent tomorrow, I want to live my life once more. Visions of grandeur, I want to taste the void extreme. Destiny awaits me, I cannot carry on this way. Coward of the dream, In silence I will rest my eyes.
