

Swim Seagull In the Sky

Novembre

Speechless
Unreal
Drowning in an abyssal silence

Slowly moving through this immensity
I fly, swimming in this darkblue sky
It's cold, I'm scared and besides rust
Even ice covers these doors

God knows hoe I'd be awake now
God knows how my eyes would tear now
God knows how I wouldn't lose my way
God knows how scared I am
How the seagull would pass away...

Swim seagull in the sky
