My Tinderbox

I can feel you here tonight Everything here makes me think of you You're all around me now And everything I see tells a story of where we've been This could be all I need

Do you remember? Do you remember? (Cause you're not here) Do you remember? Do you remember? Cause you're not standing next to me And I don't see it in your eyes anymore Do you remember? Do you remember?

I could see you standing up the road And my chest feels like caving in I chase you all night if I could Cause these eyes are running dry They tell the story of where I've been The things I know could do me in

Do you remember? Do you remember? (Cause you're not here) Do you remember? Do you remember? Cause you're not standing next to me And I don't see it in your eyes anymore Do you remember? Do you remember?

Cause I know I did everything I could and now you're gone Now you're gone And I hope you're in a better place It's not the same without you here

Do you remember? Do you remember? Cause you're not here Do you remember? Do you remember? Cause you're not standing next to me And I don't see it in your eyes anymore Do you remember? Do you remember? Do you remember? Do you remember? Do you remember?) (Do you remember? Do you remember?) (Do you remember? Do you remember?)

(Do you remember? Do you remember?)
