

Million

Number One Gun

Make this right.
We're going to,
Don't you worry.
We're going to.

All of the drawbridges
In the city are upright.
Nobody, not even you
Can bring them down.

So cry about it,
It's in your mind,
It's in your way.
It's underneath your skin.

I guess I was wrong,
The way I felt about you was right.
I guess it's alright.

One in a million
Chances are always on our side.
We're looking for anything.
Anything to keep us alright.
Alright

The next time you find yourself
In the water.
You hold tight.
And why don't you ask yourself
What you're living for.

So cry about it,
It's in your mind,
It's in your way.
It's underneath your skin.

I guess I was wrong,
The way I felt about you was right.

So hold on,
Won't you hold on.

One in a million
Chances are always on our side.
We're looking for anything.
Anything to keep us alright.
Alright

Happy, I just want to be happy
With myself tonight.

Make this right.
You've got to.
Don't you worry.
You've got to.

One in a million

Chances are always on our side.
We're looking for anything.
Anything to keep us alright.
Alright

Happy, I just want to be happy
With myself tonight.
