

The Massacre

Number One Gun

Skin it to pieces.
Watch it and hold it down.
This blood is on your hands.
It makes me feel so good.

On the surface, and there's no turning back.
But I promise, I promise.
You in here is the best thing that ever hit your life.
I promise that you'll survive. Oh God, I hope you're listening now.

What have I done, I don't deserve this.
I can't get out of here, get out alive.
What have I followed, I'm right beside you.
I'm over it, I'm over it.

Skin it to pieces.
Watch it and hold it down.
This blood is on your hands.
It makes me feel so good.

On the surface, and there's no turning back.
I know that this seems like the end.
But I promise, you can make it.

What have I done, I don't deserve this.
I can't get out of here, get out alive.
What have I followed, I'm right beside you, beside you.
I'm over it, I'm over it.

You in here is the best thing that ever hit your life.
I promise that you'll survive. Oh God, I hope you're listening now.

What have I done, I don't deserve this.
I can't get out of here, get out alive.
What have I followed, I'm right beside you, beside you.
I'm over it, I'm over it.

What have I done, I don't deserve this.
I can't get out of here, get out alive.
What have I followed, I'm right beside you, beside you.
I'm over it, I'm over it.
