

Note On The Screen Door

Nuno Bettencourt

Time flows
Like ink to paper towards the stars
Then cools into blue ice
Then cracks
Cracks like glass goodbye

Love dies slowly
Flows like molten rock
Towards the heart
Then cools to a cold steel edge
Then cuts
Cuts like a razor goodbye

See ya later
It's been nice knowin' you

Night reflects it's final moment
Like moonlight towards the lake
Then cools into my despair
Then shatters
Like a broken street light
Goodbye goodbye

See ya later
It's been nice knowin' you
