

This Is Fucking War

Nunslaughter

Above the stars of God I'll scale the heavens
Set up my throne and the devils seven
I take up my seat on Mount Congregation
Command from the north and abolish creation
Ascend in the clouds I will be most high
To cast God out and to see him die
In the name of hell you are forewarned
Achromatic Angel decrepit wings torn

This is fucking war

The hour has come closer the moon has split in two God's vengeance is upon me and I will storm the heavens above

Your ruined kingdom has fallen too far
Jesus his disciples ruled by bete noire
Devil did not sin at the point of my creation
I told my minions that there was no salvation
Obstinate evil determined in my sin
Beatific smile am smirk of my emancipation
Devotees of ungodliness progenitor everlasting
Bow to Heavens new ruler for I am now king

The hour has now past us but but I will keep hidden for in time s of strife every soul will find they need Satan
