To Defile

Nunslaughter

I am told to kill The ones with Christian minds To free their soul and crush their God Its Satan they will find Death across the land It forms into a sea A sea of blood the sins of man It only strengthens me

To Defile God

With the 7 keys I open hellish gate To curse your soul and damn you God And seal you wicked fate Now that your in hell You see what my eyes see The burning soul the evil one And you will follow me

To Defile God
