

You Say My Name

Nunslaughter

Pentagram stays unbroken and all of our hands are clutched
And the fire dances in the moonlight

Sacrifice this moaning virgin and drink the chalice of blood
It's likely we will find the answer tonight

You say my name

Summon diabolos the wretched creature of horror
The one that drives to this sick repulsion

Fright and dread fill the pit of your quivering soul
Trepidation doubt and revulsion

You say my name

Diabolos
Wicked one
Satan
Tempter
Dark one
Beast
Prince of Darkness
The Great Dragon
Mephistopheles
The old serpent

Omnipotent and foreboding my presence a must
For I can fulfill your deep desire
Existence without regret exuding sinful lust
Trading heaven for Hells unholy fire
